MEMORANDUM FOR Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: [REDACTED]

Deputy Legislative Counsel

SUBJECT: Senator James Abourezk's (D., S. Dak.) Inquiry

1. I'm sorry I wasn't up on the Abourezk matter at the morning meeting but I want to let you know OLC is on top of it. In brief, Senator Abourezk has received a complaint, apparently from [REDACTED]

25X1A

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Abourezk has asked Inouye to look into the complaint to determine the facts and to see whether the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence would object to the Select Committee on Small Business getting involved.

2. It appears that the complaint is groundless. We have been in touch with the Senate Select Committee staff to work out how best to handle it. The options are for the Committee to broker the matter for us with Abourezk or for the Committee to get us together with Abourezk's people to solve the problem. At this point, it appears Bill Miller is leaning toward the first option.
